02	The joy of outdoor living
03	Design-orientation and material mix – with these keywords the german outdoor specialist Fischer Möbel like to show what they have created for the outdoor living: garden furniture, distinctively individual and always an eye – catcher. From a single chair to benches, sun beds till complete seating groups – well – known designers work on this concept. Here some examples: “Helix”, the new garden furniture collection that matches both, modern architecture and traditional ambiance. A combination of material which give it a fresh, contemporary feeling – the “Air” Collection, winner of the iF design award 2004. With “La Piazza” Fischer Möbel has succeeded in creating excitingly original range where comfort and longevity complement each other through perfect choice of materials.
