01	The lounge system Flora with its adjustable backrest and side parts turns the outdoor area into a cosy haven. The functional outdoor sofa invites you to create your own custom-built relaxing landscape. Side tables, upholstery benches and add-on tables offer many shelf surfaces and almost endless combination possibilities. With just a few hand movements, the sofa turns into a relaxing daybed. Like a flower that opens up, the raised side parts and back rest can be folded down with many positions. The Flora sunbed is especially comfortable in both versions either with the elegant elevated frame or with puristic foot gliders. A suitable addition are the matching soft upholstered stools.
